

Australian Cable Wakeboard Pro Tour 2009

4th March 2009,

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

“The Cable Pro Tour is set for 2009”

The dates are confirmed for this years Australian Cable Pro Tour. Please note the change in date to Stop 3 at Cable Ski Cairns which has moved from the 2nd of May to the 9th May.

Stop 1: Logan Cable Ski - 18th April, 2009

Stop 2: Suncoast Cable Watersports - 25th April, 2009

Stop 3: Cable Ski Cairns - 2nd May, 2009

As interest in Cable Wakeboarding has progressed over the last few years, the current level of wakeboarding at the cable parks is mind blowing. This year's Pro Tour is set to be a big one, with the younger generation of riders pushing their level of riding to new heights and bagging a number of technical tricks, this years Pro Tour Champion is anyones game.

With a number of Australian riders fresh off the first stop of the 2009 Wake Park series at CWC in the Philippines, the Australian Cable Pro Tour is set to display some of the best Cable Wakeboarders in the world. Set over 3 weekends each cable park is set to provide the scene for an action packed tour. With only 4 divisions, Pro Men, Pro Women, Jnr Pro Men and Wakeskate, this years tour is aimed at providing a higher calibre of riding in a shorter period of time.

The Australian Nationals which will include all other divisions and will be held at Logan Cable Ski on the 19th April (day after Stop 1). Further details and press releases will be available over the next couple of weeks.

Keep your eyes on www.wake.com.au as updates and information regarding each of the stops comes available.

